GOV. EASLEY TO ANNOUNCE GOVERNOR'S CRIME COMMISSION GRANTS

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley will visit the “Kids Making It” woodworking program and announce the 2004 Governor’s Crime Commission grants at 1:00 p.m. TODAY (May 26) in the Wilmington Resident Services Building (1108 Princess Street), Wilmington.

The “Kids Making It” woodworking program has received funding from the Governor’s Crime Commission to help at-risk youth learn a practical skill to keep them off the streets.

Directions: From I-40, take U.S. 17/Market Street exit. Go south on Market Street toward downtown Wilmington. Turn right on 11th Street. Go one block and Wilmington Residence Services Building is on the right on the corner of Princess Street and 11th Street. Enter the building through the loading dock entrance.
